

Constructie Bruynooghe – Turner-miller

Tasks

Constructie Bruynooghe is looking for a turner-miller for processing stainless steel and plastic.

- Full-time job consisting of 2/3 turning & 1/3 milling.
- Exclusively machining of stainless steel and plastics.
- Turning is done with teach-in lathe, Heidenhain control.
- Making parts by means of: flat & longitudinal turning, conical turning and thread cutting (internal and external).
- Milling using conventional milling machine with digital readout.
- Flat/hook and mirror milling.
- Bearing responsibility in machining department.
- Maintaining machine(s).
- Checking the quality of pieces: reading plans and working with calipers & other measuring devices.

Profile

- Technical, eager to learn and motivated.
- Problem solver.
- Collegial, but you can work independently.
- Accurate and quality-oriented.
- Handles machines and tools with care.
- You are flexible.
- You have hands-on mentality.
- Experience as a teach-in machine operator is an asset.
- You can express yourself fluently in Dutch.

Offer

- A collaborative, open working atmosphere where taking initiative is valued.
- A stable employer with short communication lines.
- Competitive remuneration supplemented with fringe benefits (meal vouchers, eco vouchers and supplementary pension).

- Family-friendly working hours (7.30 a.m. to 4.15 p.m.).
- 20 days' leave and 12 days' ADV (reduction in working hours).

<https://www.bruynooghe.be/>